THOUGHT YOU'D LIKE TO SEE THIS:

Albert Einstein once said,

“Preparing my Tax Return
is too difficult for a mathematician.
It takes a philosopher!”

One of the great understatements of all time was:

“... for anyone not familiar with the inner workings of tax administration, the array of IRS guidance may seem, well, a little puzzling at first glance.”

At first glance? The author of that gross understatement, rivaled only by Noah's statement that, “It looks like rain,” was the IRS!

Even Albert Einstein found our tax laws “among the most complex of all human tasks”—and that was years before things got REALLY complicated.

Here are some other wonderful - and more humorous quotes about taxes:

Ben Franklin:

Nothing in this world is certain but death and taxes.

Herbert Hoover:

Blessed are the young, for they shall inherit the national debt.

J. Paul Getty:

If you get up early, work late, and pay your taxes, you will get ahead—if you strike oil.

Arthur Godfrey:

I'm proud to be paying taxes in the United States. The only thing is—I could be just as proud for half the money.

Ronald Regan:

A taxpayer is someone who works for the federal government but doesn't have to take a civil service examination.

May the year ahead bring many smiles.

And as always, please feel free to call to discuss financial matters of importance to you and yours!
